ORDER

20-CV-475 (AT) (KNF)

KEVIN NATHANIEL FOX
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Upon review of the defendant's September 4, 2020 letter-motion to compel the plaintiff: (a) "to cooperate in discovery & be sanctioned"; and (b) "to amend his initial disclosures & be sanctioned," Docket Entry No. 42, and the plaintiff's September 7, 2020 response letter, Docket Entry No. 44, the Court denies the defendant's letter-motion, Docket Entry No. 42, as meritless and frivolous. Going forward, counsel for each party must be present for any future meet and confer session, and the parties must comply with the Court's Individual Rules of Practice and all applicable rules. The parties are on notice that failure to comply with the Court's Individual Rules of Practice and any applicable rules may result in denial of the requested relief with prejudice. The parties shall refrain from wasting resources, including the Court's time, by making frivolous requests, such as that made by the defendant in its September 4, 2020 letter-motion concerning document formatting preferences.
